

THE MARINE ROBOTICS TEAM
Of
K. J. SOMAIYA COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

About TMRT

“The Marine Robotics Team” abbreviated as TMRT is the student team of K. J. Somaiya College of Engineering. Our primary goal is building a fully functional Autonomous Underwater Vehicle (AUV). Our team consists of passionate students from various fields such as electronics, mechanics, computers etc. that toil day-in and day-out to produce a fully functional and robust AUV. TMRT proudly announces its registration for SAUVC 2018 and we also aim to compete in various other competitions like RoboSub, SAUC-E and NIOT SAVe.

About The Competition

Singapore Autonomous Underwater Challenge (SAUVC) is organised by IEEE Ocean Engineering Society Singapore Chapter and is currently in its sixth edition. The International competition boasts participation from over 20 teams from across 13 countries. The competition is designed in a swimming pool format and requires the AUV to perform a series of tasks, which requires a good understanding of sensors and algorithms to navigate underwater.

MENTOR

Dr. N R Gilke

Dr. N R Gilke is the project faculty for our team. He is the vice principal of the college and has a teaching experience of twenty seven years. He specializes in mechatronics and has guided us in building the prototype model for our AUV.
